SRSC and Intramural Center Age Policies

- Participants must be 18 years of age or older to use Recreational Sports facilities. Children under age 18 may come into the facility with a parent or legal guardian who has a valid membership or day pass.
- All children under the age of 18 must either have a valid day pass or be on their parent’s/guardian’s membership.
- For children under the age of 18: Parent/legal guardian must be engaged in activity with their child or must provide direct supervision while remaining in the immediate location with their child.
- Dependents under age 18 may NOT enter with a sister, brother, coach, neighbor, etc.
- Pool use by dependents under the age of 18 is restricted to family swim times, swimming lessons or family programming.
- Strength and Cardio areas, Group Exercise sessions, and cardio equipment around the track are not available for use by dependents under the age of 18.

DAY PASS INFORMATION

TWO FACILITIES, ONE DAY PASS - $6
Recreational Sports day passes are valid at both the Student Recreational Sports Center (SRSC) and the Intramural Center (IC). Passes may be purchased at Member Services at the SRSC or IC by anyone 18 or older. Participants MUST have a photo ID to purchase passes.

Children under the age of 18 are required to have a day pass unless they are included on a parent/guardian’s membership. Members may include dependents at no additional cost.

Play Safe

Since participation in Recreational Sports programs is voluntary, participants assume responsibility for their own safety and health. If you are planning to participate in vigorous activities, you should consult with your physician prior to participation. Medical insurance, which would cover expenses incurred by an injury, is strongly recommended.
