

Evan Williams Field Policies

1. Neither Indiana University nor Campus Recreational Sports assumes responsibility for ill health or injury sustained while participating in facilities. No medical or ambulance expense incurred by a participant will be paid by Campus Recreational Sports or by the University. Participation is voluntary. It is recommended that all participants undergo a prior physical examination and carry some form of health and injury insurance.
2. If an injury does occur, it should be reported to the nearest Recreational Sports staff personnel. In the event that blood is involved in an injury, that person cannot continue to participate until the wound is properly cleaned and dressed; any clothing with blood should be removed.
3. Participants involved in a Code Red accident cannot continue their participation for the remainder of the day.
4. Campus Recreational Sports will make decisions pertaining to field and weather conditions and reserves the right to close the facility and/or cancel activities. Violators may be charged for damages when fields have been closed.
5. Campus Recreational Sports can postpone or cancel activities at any time if the event is deemed unsafe; or if event coordinators, participants, or spectators are uncooperative.
6. Physical changes to the site are not allowed (i.e. moving bleachers or goals, installing items into the ground, etc.).
7. Pets, alcoholic beverages, glass containers, motorized vehicles, and any other items that are deemed unsafe, are prohibited. Use of tobacco products is prohibited.
8. Park bicycles at designated bike racks and not on the field.
9. Verbal and/or physical abuse towards an employee of Campus Recreational Sports or Recreational Sports participant will result in immediate dismissal from this activity space, with a possible one year suspension of all Recreational Sports privileges and the possibility of expulsion from the University and legal charges filed.
10. Campus Recreational Sports is not responsible for personal belongings lost/stolen at Evan Williams Field.
11. Questions and concerns regarding Recreational Sports programs, personnel, and equipment should be directed to (812) 855-7772.
